

NOTIFICATION OF NON-BREEDING CATTLE EXEMPT FROM THE WHOLE HERD TEST

This exemption is provided for separate units of non-breeding animals, such as a beef finishing unit on a separate parcel of land or outfarm. The exemption does not apply to cull heifers, cows and bulls from the breeding herd.

1. HERDOWNER DECLARATION

I declare that the animals listed below are exempted from the whole herd test for Johne’s disease, as they:

- | | |
|--------------------------|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> | Have been kept, whenever on my farm and aged over two years, on land or in housing that have not been used within the previous 12 months to keep my breeding herd and replacement stock; and |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | Have not been used as breeding animals, and |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | Are not in the process of being culled from the breeding herd. |

LIST OF ANIMAL IDENTIFICATION TAG NUMBERS ¹

¹ If there is insufficient space to list all non-breeding cattle kept separately from the breeding herd, please use page 2 below.

2. APPROVED VETERINARY PRACTITIONER ENDORSEMENT

I endorse the above declaration.

I am satisfied that the IJCP herd (of breeding animals and replacement young stock intended for breeding) occupies land and housing that, for at least the preceding 12 months, has not been used by the animals listed above, which are maintained in a physically separate, non-breeding unit.
